

ESRC Complexity Research Seminar 3
Applied Complexity Theory as the New Framework for Management & Public Policy

Complexity: a Framework for Policy and Decision Support

9.30 – 17.00, 10 June 2009
at CMRI, Cranfield University, Beds MK43 0AL

APPLICATION FORM

NAME:

POSITION:

ORGANISATION:

ADDRESS:

Tel:

Mobile:

Email:

Special Dietary Requirements?

Closing date: Monday 1 June 2009

Please note that the seminar will be video recorded and posted on the LSE Complexity website to increase dissemination. If you have any objection to being recorded you need to let us know when applying, otherwise this application will be taken as consent to participating in the recording.

ESRC Complexity Research Seminar 3
Applied Complexity Theory as the New Framework for Management & Public Policy

Complexity: a Framework for Policy and Decision Support

9.30 – 17.00, 10 June 2009
at CMRI, Cranfield University, Beds MK43 0AL

APPLICATION FORM – Page 2

Why is this seminar relevant to you?

Answering this question, will help us to allocate the free ESRC places.

What are the challenges that could form the basis of interdisciplinary projects?

One of the key objectives of the Research Seminar Series is to identify the key challenges. For seminar 3 you need to identify some challenges associated with the modelling of policy decisions (max. 300 words).

Please attach a short bio, to be circulated to all other participants.

Please either email application to rosemary.cockfield@cranfield.ac.uk or post to Rosemary Cockfield, School of Management, Cranfield University, Bedfordshire, MK43 0AL, UK marked 'ESRC Seminar'.